ciary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. Notice To Potential Bidders: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks in olved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. Notice To Property Owner: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that informa-tion about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date whether your sale date has been postponed, and if applicable, the resched uled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (877) 440-4460 or visit this Internet Web site www.mkconsultantsinc.co m, using the file number assigned to this case 230309084. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflect ted in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postpone-ment information is to at-tend the scheduled sale. Notice To Tenant: You may have a right to pur-chase this property after the trustee auction pursu ant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auc tion. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if vou exceed the last and trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale you can call (877) 440-4460, or visit this internet www.tlssales.info. using the file number assigned to this case 230309084 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that he trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you sional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase.
